

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Friday February 23, 2000

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Dipping into education funds debated

Heritage? No flag is big enough to tell our story

Back Bay hearing may be last Gaming: Base watching building heights

Editorials

New flag an issue out of a non-issue

Doing away with flag aids progress

Politically correct Yankees have 'downed' South for years

We're stuck with Sen. Cochran in his reelection bid

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Clark: Another casino may threaten Keesler

Two issues could help, hinder Coast Future framework has officials talking +

Mississippi leads nation in students staying in state

Senate OKs bill to let schools dip into textbook, supply funds

Lott to launch school computers

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

State casino revenue up 5 percent in January

Bill to appoint transportation commissioners appears dead

Bill to repeal warehouse storage tax heads to Musgrove

Timing and money -- Speaker Ford stands firm for realistic budgets

'Blue Ribbon District' -- Citation affirms link of education, prosperity

Letters to the Editor

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

Stash of tobacco cash proves tempting

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

School building program in jeopardy with state cuts

Industry, health care, education ties make community stronger

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Grisham, Minor receive Richard Wright awards

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

Sela Ward honored

State Legislature passes special bill for EMSH director

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Higher learning feels heat of big utility bills

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

East Pike boil-water restrictions lifted

Bill Minor: State campaign law takes beating

stateline.org

